that it is the best yet.

The help of the Paris Mfg. Co. have a vacation. This week the factory is closed to take account of the fact.

When we went past, Monday, the silence seemed unusual and oppressive.
James R. McKinnon of North Buckfield was here, last week.
The quarter of hunters returned from their hunt with two deer, one fox and one coon. A big fox, last week.
The men with fish stories to tell take a hundred cent.

June P. Skiffings, owner and manager of the Bethel steam mill, was in town, last week. He is an extensive manufacturer of spoons.

James Whitehead of North Conway spent Sunday with his many friends here.
J. H. Turner of Thompson is visiting his friends here. "Jack" was the popular clerk in Sturtevant's store sometime, and we hear flattering reports of his standing in his studies at the Boston College of Pharmacy.

Wellington Bird of Bryant's Pond

was in town, Monday. Mr. Bird is with D. D. Fernald, the local doctor. He met Uncle John Black, Monday afternoon, walking down to call on Judge Dyer. Mr. Black was very chippy. The weather suits him, because he can get out and around so nicely.
He attends the Baptist Association at Paris Hill, this week.

J. J. Emery and wife have returned from a good long visit in Portland.

W. B. Blake has improved their lot of horse immensely by putting in modern ventilation, one punch in a mesh.
Fleming J. Pitt of South Buckfield has been visiting his friends here.
He is a student in Bowdoin College.
He is the son of Rev. Amos Dyer, the pastor of the Congregational church.

Frank R. Barrett of Sumner made a business trip to this village, last week.

He is one of the numerous able buyers and sellers of real estate heavily with the farmers at this time of year.
P. S. Penrose of Bolster's Mills has visited his friends here.
Those who wanted the village corporation to pay for night police were moved under the meeting, last week.
They don't feel safe without one.
We are asking the question, "What will we do?"

The following officers of the Paris Hill

Lodge, I. O. O. F., were elected at their regular meeting:
J. B. Robinson, N. E. Grand Master.
Chas. A. Young, V. E.
J. P. Stoddard, Sec.
J. P. Stoddard, Sec.

Frank A. Thayer has leased the store

in Billings Block for a year. He had it stocked with furniture and other goods, and the new lease doesn't occasion any moving. His daughter, Grace Thayer, is in charge most of the time.
J. F. Plummer has been suffering from a severe cold. Part of the time he was sick enough to keep away from store, which with him means very sick.
Mrs. Sarah Clark has been ailing long.

Dr. Duck is happy. His wife has returned from the visit to her parents and is keeping house again. The Dr.

and his wife taste better when his wife cooks them and serves them at their own table.
Arthur S. Hall and Alice May King were married by Rev. George Proctor, last Thursday. They will live at Buckfield where Mr. Hall has stopped for some time past.
Nancy Harty were at the family party given by Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Curtis on Christmas day. They had a picnic dinner. Followed by a Christmas dinner. Among those present were Jonathan Andrews and wife with five children, thirteen grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.
A big commotion on the Hill road, Sunday night. George Proctor, Dr.
Dyer and R. H. W. were returning from Paris Hill. The other side of Paris Hill their horse became frightened.
He started and ran down the road.
The horse and driver were riding up the hill and Albert Smith's wife of Norway coming down. Their horses were passing near the cemetery when the runaway horse dashed into both and broke down. The horse of the Shaw was pushed into the ditch and one carriage wheel broken. Smith's carriage was broken down and his wife was thrown out and considerably bruised.
The horse that started the trouble finally stopped his onward course in E. M.

Thayer's field, Smith's horse ran away and was finally found in the following place. The horse was found in the Paris Hill. They tried to hold him but he could not and during the fracas both horses became unmanageable. The horse fired himself with little damage to the harness and time to the carriage.
The carriage of the Hill Lodge, K. of P., for 1896, will be installed this Friday evening by District Deputy J. A.
